

JUNIOR TECHNICAL WRITER Ia Endava - BestJobs

Project description

A dedicated team of engineers provides QA and Technical Writing for a streaming solution used by the customers of our US partner around the world in order to deliver live an MOD (Media-On-Demand) streaming on 3gpp handsets. The product provides mobile operators, content providers and handset manufacturers the tools they need to create and launch advanced multimedia services.

Responsibilities

Technical Writing responsibilities:

- Develops, writes, and edits technical documentation, including user guides, installation guides, release notes, technical briefs working closely with the other technical writers, QA, development and support teams;
- The primary documentation is developed in Microsoft Word, converted to PDF and HTML.

Quality Assurance responsibilities:

- Own all aspects of testing throughout the application life cycle, including acceptance, regression, installation and upgrade testing;
- Detailed test planning and test design;
- Defect discovery, isolation, documentation and tracking.

Cerinte

Mandatory skills:

- Very good English knowledge, both oral and written;
- Very attentive to details, fast learner, good communication skills;
- College graduate;
- Good PC operating skills;
- Some technical editing and writing skills or some QA skills;

Desirable skills:

- IT background;
- Technical writing experience;
- QA / Testing experience;
- English language certification.

Oferta (bonusuri, beneficii)

Benefits:

- The opportunity to work in an international environment;
- Young and dynamic team;
- On-job trainings and long term career development plan within Endava organization;
- Opportunities for training and working abroad;
- Language trainings;
- Highly competitive salary package;
- Medical insurance;
- Meal tickets;
- Banking services in preferential conditions;
- Relocation package for candidates outside Cluj;
- Team-building activities.